

PUTTY:

host name: shrek.unideb.hu

port: 2222

Commands:

- ls

Example:

ls

ls -l

ls -a

ls -la

Example question:

Please list all files (hidden)

Answer: ls -la

- cd

Example "Show files:

cd ..

cd $HOME

cd /home/<eduid>/

- mkdir

Example Make directory somewhere:

mkdir <d1>

mkdir /home/<eduid>/d1

- pwd

Example Show where are you now in the sys:

pwd

- echo

Example How to write "Hello World" to monitor:

echo "Hello world"

Example Save "My name" to simple.txt:

echo "My name" > simple.txt

Example What is the difference > and >> symbol

- cat

Example Show what include in /etc/passwd file:

```
cat /etc/passwd
```

Example show and save other file to temp directory:

```
cat /etc/passwd > /tmp/text.txt
```

- date

Example show the today, and save to file:

```
date > date.txt
```

- man

Example How can you see the help:

```
man <program name>
```

- touch

Example create a empty file:

```
touch empty.txt
```

- rm

Example Delete file

```
rm -r <file name>
```

- cp

Example Copy file1.txt to file2.txt

```
cp file1.txt file2.txt
```

Example Copy /etc/passwd file to /home/<eduid>/passwd.txt

```
cp /etc/passwd /home/<eduid>/passwd.txt
```

- mv

Example Rename folder1 to folder2:

```
mv folder1 folder2
```

Example move folder1 to folder2

```
mv folder1 folder2/
```

- tar

Example Create a compressed file from folder1:

```
tar -cvf compressed.tar folder1
```

Example Decompress file:

```
tar -xvf compressed.tar
```

- make a d1 folder/directory

- go to d1 directory

- make empty file. filename: empty.txt

- show today (date command)
- save today to date.txt
- list files (simple and hidden)
- delete/remove empty.txt
- add your name to date.txt (new line)
- check the date.txt
- create d2 directory
- move date.txt to d2
- list files in d2
- compress d2. file name: d2.tar
- remove/delete d2 directory
- rename d2.tar to d1.tar
- uncompress d1.tar